

SCHOOL SONG

Sing we the school and love that is warming
Hearts to a flame in her service burning
Aims that are highest, and friendships that forming,
Gild with their rapture the years of our learning.

Chorus

So sing we joyfully the song that binds us ever
And ring the rafters with vows that shall not sever,
Bind us in friendship's golden chain,
In work that lightens with each endeavour.
With each endeavour

Gather with joys and friendship abounding,
Now for our school be no love withholding,
Here, with our teachers and comrades surrounding,
Hail we the banner its colour unfolding.

repeat chorus

Onward we move, nobility gaining,
Clear be our knowledge and strong be our honour,
That to our land we may give of our training,
All she may ask from her children's labour.

repeat chorus

Honour the school for her bounty in giving Nobility – an ideal to inherit,
Courage that we may be zealous in living,
Lives that have Service their goal and their merit.
